

CLIENT JOURNEY

SENIOR MANAGER, TECH SECTOR

GOALS

In what ways have you changed or grown since starting your coaching journey?

Client reflection:

I have been more relaxed in very intense or stressful situation and able to focus on the solution. I am taking a step back and allowing others to come forward for the all discussions or project work.

Sha's feedback:

The biggest shift I have seen in [client] is his ability to step back from a situation in order to evaluate what to do next. He is less likely these days to jump into taking action. Instead, he will consider carefully his options, ask useful questions, and take his time to consider his approach. This has created a shift, I believe, that has moved his leadership from tactical to more strategic.

YOUR PATH

What notable milestones, achievements, or learnings have you gained since starting your coaching journey?

Your reflection:

My involvement with multiple stakeholders has increased. I am able to communicate shared responsibilities and goals with cross-functional teams.

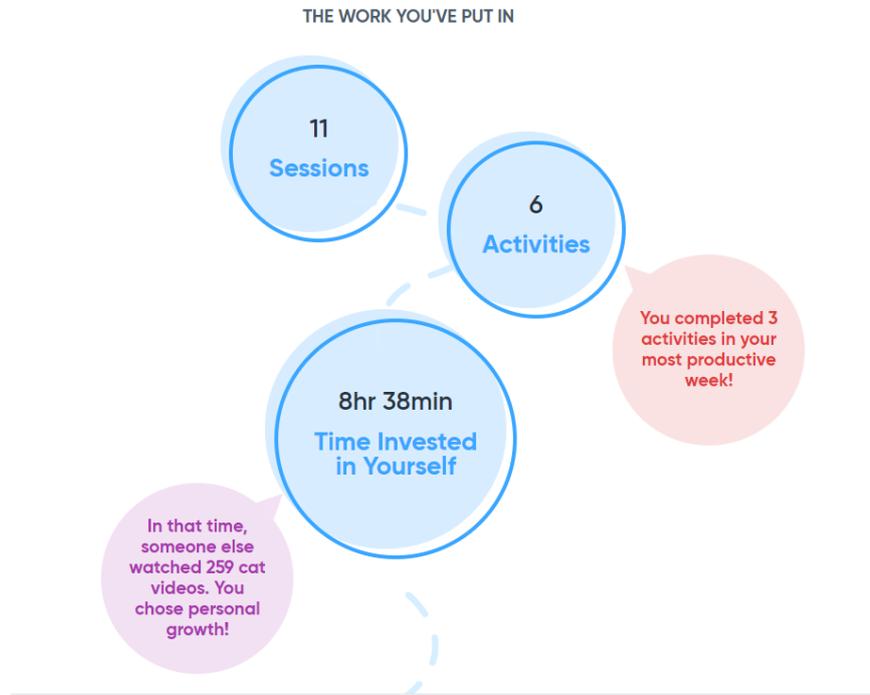

Sha's feedback:

- A shift from a manager mindset to a leader mindset
- Better leadership of cross-functional teams.
- More curiosity about others and their thinking/way of doing and therefore more collaboration in creating solutions
- Increased self-awareness.

Others have started to notice a difference in his approach and attitude.

WE HAVE BEEN WORKING TOGETHER FOR 3 MONTHS. LET'S TAKE A LOOK AT YOUR JOURNEY:

YOUR FIRST MEETING: MAR 20, 2020

YOUR FUTURE DIRECTION

Where would you like to go in the next stage of your personal and professional growth?

Your reflection:

On the personal front I would like to focus and gain my well-being in my physical, mental, and social health. On the professional front, I would like to grow to the next level where I take more responsibilities and play a bigger role in my current organisation.

Sha's feedback:

(Client) has a true growth mindset. He is eager to learn and grow his skill set and really examine his attitudes and actions. With this kind of approach, the sky is the limit for his growth. I'm really looking forward to seeing him step further into his true power and realise all goals that he sets for himself.
